FIXING A LATER DATE FOR TERMINATION OF ECUADORAN TRADE AGREEMENT PROCLAMATION

January 17, 1956
[No. 3122]

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

69 Stat. 162.
19 USC 1351.

19 USC 1352.

53 Stat. 1966.

WHEREAS, under the authority vested in him by section 350 (a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended by the act of June 12, 1934, entitled "An Act to amend the Tariff Act of 1930" (48 Stat. 943), the time within which the President was authorized to enter into trade agreements pursuant to such amending act having been extended for three years from June 12, 1937, by the joint resolution of Congress approved March 1, 1937 (50 Stat. 24), the President of the United States entered into a trade agreement with the Supreme Chief of the Republic of Ecuador on August 6, 1938 (53 Stat. 1952), and proclaimed such trade agreement by proclamation of September 23, 1938 (53 Stat. 1951); and

WHEREAS Article XIX of the said trade agreement provides that the agreement shall remain in force and effect until six months from the day on which either Government shall give notice of its intention to terminate it; and

19 USC 1351.

WHEREAS, pursuant to the said Article XIX the Government of the United States of America gave notice on July 18, 1955, of its intention to terminate the said agreement, which notice was withdrawn by the Government of the United States of America on January 17, 1956, and on the same day replaced by a new notice of intention to terminate pursuant to the said Article XIX; and Ante, p. c7.

WHEREAS the said section 350 (a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, authorizes the President to terminate, in whole or in part, any proclamation carrying out a trade agreement entered into under such section; and

Ecuadoran Trade
Agreement Proclamation.
Termination date.

69 Stat. 162.
19 USC 1351.

WHEREAS by Proclamation No. 3111 of August 27, 1955 (20 F. R. 6485) the President proclaimed that the said proclamation dated September 23, 1938 should be terminated as of the close of January 17, 1956, six months from the day on which notice of termination of the said trade agreement had been given by the Government of the United States of America:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the statutes, including the said section 350 (a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, do proclaim that the said proclamation of August 27, 1955 shall be amended (1) by deleting "July 18, 1955" as the date on which notice of intention to terminate was given and by inserting "January 17, 1956" in place thereof, and (2) by deleting "January 17, 1956" as the date as of the close of which termination will take place and by inserting "July 16, 1956" in place thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this seventeenth day of January in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-six,
[SEAL] and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eightieth.

NATIONAL JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT WEEK

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

January 26, 1956
[No. 3123]

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS initiative, a sense of individual dignity, and the determination to mold one's own future are important elements of the character of the youth of our country; and

WHEREAS many of our young people are learning American business methods by actually organizing and operating their own enterprises under the guidance of businessmen of their local communities; and

WHEREAS the experience in business management gained through participation in these small enterprises is of immense value in stimulating the spirit of achievement, independence, and community responsibility in our youth; and

WHEREAS thousands of American businessmen voluntarily give unstintingly of their time, their counsel, and their experience for the benefit of these junior achievers; and

WHEREAS the Congress, by Senate Concurrent Resolution 59, agreed to January 17, 1956, has requested the President to issue a proclamation designating the week beginning January 29, 1956, as National Junior Achievement Week:

Ante, p. B4.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate the week beginning January 29, 1956, and ending February 4, 1956, as National Junior Achievement Week; and I urge all citizens of our country to salute the activities of Junior Achievers and their volunteer adult advisers through appropriate ceremonies.

National Junior
Achievement Week,
1956.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this twenty-sixth day of January in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-six,
[SEAL] and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eightieth.
